Wires can only be sent or received for Centex Citizens Credit Union members. Centex Citizens Credit Union relies on the information provided by the member to make the payment, even if the identifying number provided identifies a financial institution, person, or account other than the intended party. The credit union may reject any wire transfer requests that exceed the available funds in the member's account, contain incomplete information, or cannot be sufficiently authenticated. The credit union shall not be responsible for any loss or liability arising from inaccurate information provided by the member, the credit union's rejection of a wire transfer, or the rejection or delay from any other third party involved. By signing this form, the originator understands that the wire is irrevocable and will present due care when providing wire information.
