Meet Our 2023 Scholarship Winners!

Over the years, the Annual Scholarship Program at CCCU has provided students thousands of dollars towards their college education. CCCU traditionally awards six scholarships to area graduating students. This year's winners were: (from top left to right) Halle Jones from Groesbeck; Kailey Kinkade from Corsicana; Karyme Lozano from Coolidge; Magali Luna from Mexia; Samaria Busby from Mexia; and Preston Batts from Wortham.

We congratulate our 2023 scholarship recipients, as well as all area graduates! Best wishes!

Meet Our Newest Additions to the Team!

Dawn Roddy

Dawn is pleased and excited to be the newest Assistant Branch Manager for CCCU in Corsicana. She and her husband Jeff have two sons. The youngest recently graduated from Corsicana High School. They reside in the Cryer Creek area outside of Corsicana. Dawn brings over 17 years' experience in the banking industry, as well as over 25 years' experience in management. In her new role, she plans to bring about a sense of belonging and success for the Corsicana branch and she looks forward to growing alongside the team!

Nakia Rider

Nakia is the newest Loan Officer in the Ennis branch. She was born and raised in Ennis and graduated from EHS in 2013. Nakia is a proud wife and mom of one daughter and one son—both of whom keep her busy! She has over three years' experience in banking. Nakia really enjoys helping the membership and making each one feel like her #1 priority from the moment they walk through the doors. She's always ready with a smile. In her spare time, Nakia enjoys spending time with her family, reading real estate books and shopping.

Timothy Boulware

We are pleased to welcome Timothy as the newest Teller at our Mexia branch. Timothy expressed how much he loves working with the members and with his coworkers because he feels each day is filled with opportunity and it's a positive work environment. He also serves as the Youth Pastor at One Church Mexia. Timothy grew up in Mexia, but moved to Copperas Cove for a time, where he met his wife, Stephanie. They've returned to Mexia, and they have a little girl, Elliana, and another baby girl on the way. Timothy enjoys teaching God's word, encouraging others and spending time with family and friends.
